

CSci 2041

Advanced Programming Principles

L11: Exam 1 Discussion

Eric Van Wyk

Fall 2014

We'll discuss

1. the numbers
2. how these scores are tracked and used
3. answers to individual questions

Keep your exam!

Any data-entry errors that are made in Moodle can only be fixed if you have your original exam.

Your exam score should be in Moodle. Verify that it matches the score on the back of your exam.

Exam results

Average score: 60

Median: 60

scores	range
0	= 100
5	≥ 90
12	≥ 80
31	≥ 70
37	≥ 60
37	≥ 50
21	≥ 40
20	< 40

Interpretation:

- ▶ low 70's and above is "A" work
- ▶ low 60's and above is "B" work
- ▶ below 40 is not passing

Results by question

Question:	1a	1b	1c	1d	1e	1f	1g
Possible:	4	4	4	4	4	5	5
Average:	3.01	2.47	0.80	1.46	3.16	1.95	2.01

Question:	2a	2b	2c	3	4	5
Possible:	5	10	10	5	5	5
Average:	4.60	8.01	7.73	3.07	2.68	4.17

Question:	6a	6b	6c	6d	7
Possible:	3	3	2	2	20
Average:	2.34	1.53	1.35	1.12	8.15

How are these numbers used?

- ▶ We record scores on individual questions. There were 18 on this exam.
- ▶ Performance varied.
- ▶ The second and final exam may ask similar questions to previous exams. In some cases we will take the highest score and re-calculate your old exam score.
- ▶ This is an opportunity to improve your scores if you demonstrate understanding later on.